LAND USE BYLAW NO. 173-2009 Public Hearing

Saddle Hills County has been reviewing its Land Use Bylaw and collecting input from the public. The purpose of a Land Use Bylaw is to provide guidance for development within the County. An initial draft was prepared and presented at the recent public open houses held in March. Based on the comments received by landowners of the County and input from the Steering Committee, the draft Land Use Bylaw (173-2009) has been amended and was given first reading by County Council on May 26, 2009.

Copies of the new draft Land Use Bylaw 173-2009 are available at the County Administration office in Spirit River, or on the County's web site at www.saddlehills.ab.ca.

The Public Hearing will be held as follows:

Date: June 17, 2009
Time: 7:00 p.m.
Location: County Council Chambers
5201 – 47 Street, Spirit River, AB

Plan to attend this important event to ensure your concerns are addressed, or to learn more about what this document means to every landowner within the County.

Written comments will be received until June 16, 2009 at 4:30 p.m. for consideration at the public hearing and may be submitted to dsc@saddlehills.ab.ca or to the Saddle Hills County Planning and Development Department at the address below.
