

Saddle Hills County Supports STARS

In recognition of the County's past and committed donations totalling more than $500,000 for the Alberta Shock Trauma Air Rescue Society, the County's logo has been added to their five air ambulance helicopters. Saddle Hills County has led the way for municipal sponsorship of STARS, in supporting the Grande Prairie base, which serves Peace Country residents, including county ratepayers. The unveiling of the logo took place at the Saddle Hills County Volunteer Appreciation BBQ at Moonshine Lake Provincial Park on June 24, before some of the event's 185 attendees.

LOCAL FAMILY HONoured WITH Farm Family Award

Congratulations to the Jeannotte family for selection as the 2010 Saddle Hills County Farm Family of the Year.

This award is presented by the Northlands/AMA to a deserving farm family for increasing awareness of agriculture and maintaining a high standard in their agricultural business. The award is presented at the Northlands Edmonton Expo in November.

Rene Jeannotte Farms has been proactive in agricultural technologies and acted as a role model to the rural community. Involvement in community activities and promoting multi-generational family farming are also important to the Jeannotte family.

The county is proud to have a farm family honored by Northlands/AMA for bringing attention to the strong family involvement in agriculture in Saddle Hills County.
