

THE Wilderness IS OUR BACK YARD

REGISTER YOUR PRIVATELY-OWNED EQUIPMENT FOR 2026

Saddle Hills County invites contractors who provide heavy equipment and gravel hauling services to register their equipment with the County. Contractors must register annually by completing the Privately Owned Equipment Registration Form. Forms can be completed online at saddlehills.ab.ca/Privately-Owned-Equipment, emailed as a fillable PDF, or submitted in person at the County office. Equipment can be registered at any time throughout the year. However, the construction season typically begins on or around April 1, and contractors are encouraged to submit their registration by March 15, 2026. For questions about Privately Owned Equipment registration or other Public Works services, please contact (780) 864-3760 or email publicworks@saddlehills.ab.ca.

2026 REQUEST FOR SEASONAL TRAPPERS

Saddle Hills County is inviting experienced trappers holding a valid Alberta trapper's licence to submit a quote for pest removal services in 2026. Work will be carried out on an as-needed basis, in advance of County staff clearing waterways and culverts. Trappers must provide their own vehicle and all required equipment. Applicants are required to review the full eligibility criteria and service specifications prior to submitting a quote. Complete details are available by scanning the QR code or visiting saddlehills.ab.ca/Seasonal-Trappers. For more information please contact the Agricultural Fieldman at (780) 864-3760.
